What is the legal structure of your organisation/group? *

Incorporated Society Charitable Trust Limited Liability Company School Maori Trust Informal group/ no legal structure

Tip: An informal group may also be a "not for profit community group".

What is a legal structure?

Having a legal structure means your organisation has its own legal identity, it can include:

- incorporated societies
- trusts registered under the Charitable Trusts Act 1957
- companies with charitable purposes / social enterprises
- school board of trustees
- Māori trust boards.

If you are unsure please contact a grants advisor at communityfunding@aucklandcouncil.govt.nz. or phone us on 09 301 0101

Please indicate which category your application falls into: *

Applying for up to $1,000 Applying for $1,001 and over

Applicants with no formal legal structure (eg individuals or groups who are not an incorporated society) may apply for a grant up to $1,000.

Umbrella organisations are organisations with a formal legal structure that have agreed to receive and administer the grant on the applicant's behalf. For example an umbrella organisation needs to be an incorporated society or charitable trust.

21/22 Quick Response Application Form (South)
