The Franklin Arts Centre (Pukekohe) presents a diverse range of high-quality creative experiences that reflect, engage and enrich its local communities. The projects hosted by and presented in the Gallery include a range of media and practices. The Centre has an emphasis on activating local narratives through its programmes, and wherever possible, includes creative people with connections to the area. We are calling for creative projects from groups, collectives or individuals interested in exhibiting and/or creating unique projects, programmes, or events at the Arts Centre to be held during 2027 (January December).
